

Traveller Culture & Heritage Film Programme Guide 2015

Showing for free at
The Traveller Culture Exhibit
at Cork Public Museum
Fitzgerald's Park

April - May 2015

Would you like to Suni at the Vardo? (2009)

An audio slideshow with memories, stories and photos of Traveller life in the first half of the twentieth century. Includes images from the National Folklore Collection. Produced by Karen Harkin, Clíona O'Carroll and Colin MacHale of UCC Folklore Department with Cork Traveller Women's Network. More overleaf >

Cork Women's Traveller Network

Cork City Council

April 1st — May 30th 2015

Would you like to Suni
at the Vardo? (2009)

See front for details

June 1st—July 31st 2015

The Flat Cart (2011)

The Flat Cart was made to showcase the traditional skills that Traveller men had cultivated and passed down through generations. This film follows a group of men of the building an original horse drawn cart.

Produced by Traveller Visibility Group

August 1st—October 31st 2015

Tales of the Road (2014)

“Tales of the Road” presents a unique look into a rarely seen, and slowly vanishing, part of the contemporary Traveller lifestyle – the racing and husbandry of horses by the boys and men of the Spring Lane halting site. Directed by Noel Twomey, “Tales of the Road” was produced for Cork Community Television with the assistance of the Traveller Visibility Group and the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland.

November 1st—December 27th 2015

Spring Lane Young Girls Group (2012)

Spring lane Young Girls Group documents the activities of this award winning Traveller led youth group. This inspiring girls group focussed on activities around health well being and their identity as young Traveller women. Produced by Ian Stephenson in conjunction with the Spring Lane Young Girls Group and the Cork Traveller Women’s Network

Museum opens: Mon to Fri: 11am—1pm, 2.15pm—5pm

Sat: 11am—1pm, 2.15pm—4pm Sun: 3pm—5pm (April—Sept)