

Cork Traveller Pride 2025 is a week-long festival celebrating Travellers as citizens of Cork, showcasing the many positive contributions that Irish Travellers bring to our city. It celebrates the richness of Traveller culture and ethnicity, both for Travellers and the wider community. Held in tandem with Traveller Pride events nationwide.

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE
ALL ARE WELCOME

For more information on Cork Traveller Pride, follow CTWN and TVG on Facebook.

Cork Traveller Pride is organised by Cork Traveller Women's Network (CTWN) and Cork Traveller Visibility Group (TVG), and supported by Cork Public Museum, HSE Traveller Health Unit Cork and Kerry, HSE Community Work Department, Cork City Council, Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission (IHREC), National Traveller Pride Steering Committee, Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth and the Dormant Accounts Fund.

Comhairle Cathrach Chorcaí
Cork City Council

An Roinn Leanaí, Comhionannais,
Míchumais, Líonpháiríochta agus Oige
Department of Children, Equality,
Disability, Integration and Youth

purple hull design

CORK TRAVELLER PRIDE
26-31 MAY 2025
A celebration of Traveller ethnicity and culture
All Events Free All Welcome

CORK TRAVELLER PRIDE 2025

MON

Raising the Cork Traveller Pride Flag

26 May, 12 noon
In front of Cork City Hall

Look out for the flag at St Finbarr's Hospital Campus and at Tory Top Library.

Keenan Family Tree Project Launch

26 May, 6.30 p.m. – 7.30 p.m.
Ballyphehane Community Centre, Tory Top Road

Join us for an evening of chat and song celebrating the Keenan family tree and memories from times gone by.

TUE & WED

“Creating Connections, Traveller Lives” Virtual Reality Short Film

27 May and 28 May
10 – 2 p.m.
Cork Public Museum, Fitzgerald Park

Booking is essential as places are limited. Please message on WhatsApp 0863850136 to book a viewing slot. Suitable for over 12s only.

First public screening of “Creating Connections, Traveller Lives” a short film in Virtual Reality, celebrating Traveller culture and identity. Produced by Linda Curtin with Cork Traveller Women's Network. Commissioned by the Traveller Accommodation Unit, Cork City Council, funded by Dormant Accounts.

THUR

Rebel County Traveller Archive Launch

29 May, 11 a.m.
Cork Public Museum, Fitzgerald Park

Oein DeBhairduin from the National Museum of Ireland will launch an online archive celebrating Traveller culture featuring powerful photos, films, and stories. Supported by the Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission and The Heritage Council of Ireland. <https://www.rebelcountytravellerarchive.ie/>

ALL EVENTS FREE
ALL ARE WELCOME

SAT

Family Fun Day

31 May, 12 noon – 3 p.m.
Fitzgerald Park, Cork City

Family-friendly day for the people of Cork to celebrate Traveller culture and traditions. Activities include traditional paper flower-making workshops, Traveller singers, spoken word artists, hair braiding, petting zoo, fortune teller, carousel, face painting, football, mascots, and an ice cream van! Don't miss the beautiful barrel-top wagon in our Traveller culture exhibit in the museum.

FAMILY FUN DAY

ON PERMANENT DISPLAY

“Toraig on the Tobar” Traveller Culture Exhibit

Cork Public Museum, Fitzgerald Park
“Toraig on the Tobar” showcases a full-size, barrel-top wagon, as well as a collection of photographs, film footage and other artefacts celebrating Traveller culture.

Black Ash Traveller Heritage Sign

On the walkway behind the recycling centre, Tramore Valley Park
Cork City's first Traveller heritage sign tells the history of the Black Ash area as an important, traditional camping area for Travellers.

